Cheboygan county club members running with the Governor on the Mighty Mac

Our Michigan Governor, Jennifer Granholm finishing her bridge run on Labor Day

Can you believe they grew this hill at mile 8 of a half marathon in Marquette, MI?

And this is what can happen when one falls five times on a trail marathon!

But, the views are fantastic when/if one makes it to the top!

Sally and Bob enjoying company and food after a run/walk in the woods at Greenwood Sanctuary

The crazy 5 Striders who attempted (and completed) the half marathon up those hills

Ready to tackle the infamous 10 mile Crim run in Flint, Michigan
